BIOGRAPHY

Dalin Oliver is a multi-award winning South African comedian, sports broadcaster and podcast host. Known for his infectious energy and razor-sharp wit, he connects effortlessly with people from all walks of life. His comedy has taken him to stages in 10 countries and 23 cities, earning him acclaim at home and abroad.

Fresh from performances at the prestigious Melbourne International Comedy Festival, Dalin Oliver has been making waves with his latest one-man show, 90 Day Comedian. The show garnered critical acclaim, winning the Best Weekly Comedy Show Award at Perth's Fringe World and earning a Bronze Standard Bank Ovation Award at South Africa's National Arts Festival. It also picked up multiple nominations at the South African Comics' Choice Comedy Awards, firmly establishing its impact on the comedy scene.

Dalin recently concluded his biggest international tour to date, performing 90 Day Comedian across six countries and thirteen cities in England, Ireland, the Netherlands, Germany, France, and Spain. He also toured Dubai and Abu Dhabi with the renowned Laughter Factory, continuing to grow his global audience.

A seasoned performer with five comedy specials to his name, two of which were filmed and broadcast by Showmax & DSTV. Dalin has also appeared on Comedy Central Africa and starred in the local action-comedy film Finders Keepers, which enjoyed a nationwide cinema release.

With more than 10 years in stand-up comedy and sports broadcasting, Oliver has managed to merge the two worlds extremely well. He got the nod to host his own sports show; The Late Late Tackle with Dalin Oliver. It's the newest talk show on the block with four-time Rugby World Cup Champions, the Springboks. The first season was a limited edition six-part series which aired on MTN's BokSquad, the official home of the fans, prior to the team departing for the world cup in France 2023. He's now host of the Late Late Tackle Podcast with focus placed on former and current Springboks.

For close to a decade, Dalin was a staple part of Cape Town's daily morning breakfast routine as the Sports Presenter on Good Hope FM's Breakfast show, where his colourful delivery and on-air comedic flair earned him multiple SA Radio Awards sports presenter of the year nominations as well as a best breakfast show nomination. He also forms one half of Non-Travelling Reserves, a sports podcast balanced with facts, comedy, and banter between friends, which was recognized at the 2023 DSTV Content Creator Awards with a Podcast of the Year nomination.

When the dynamic performer is not on stage or on-air, rocking the mic at live sports events is at the top his list. Dalin is a real crowd pleaser and generator of gees and good times, after working at numerous Cricket South Africa events, the ICC Women's T20 World Cup, ICC men's u19 Cricket World Cup, Netball World Cup, SA20 and with the MI Cape Town, DHL Stormers and Springboks family. Thanks for being lekker. From South Africa to world - Awê 😊
